

Farmville Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Farmville, Va., December 10.—Rev. W. B. Hill, pastor of the Farmville Presbyterian Church, has received a unanimous call from the congregation of the West End Presbyterian Church, of Atlanta, Ga.
Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gilt have gone to Huntsville, Ala., to spend their Christmas.
The students of the Normal School will have two weeks' holiday at Christmas.
A. C. Foster, of Cumberland, and Miss Martha R. Overton, of Prince Edward, were united in marriage at the home of M. N. Gill, Rev. Mr. Dadman performing the ceremony.
The women of the Presbyterian Church gave a very successful entertainment last night in their lecture room. Many appropriate articles were sold for Christmas.

Winchester Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Winchester, Va., December 10.—Mrs. James B. Lovett, of Winchester, who has been spending some time with friends at Lexington, has gone to Buena Vista, on a visit.
Mr. and Mrs. Luther Fries have returned to their home in Connelleyville, Pa., after a visit to the former's brother, J. S. Fries, and family, in Winchester.
Miss Mary Allen Capper, of Winchester, has been visiting friends in Washington during the past week.
Mrs. Dabney Harrison and Mrs. Harry K. Benham, of Washington, who came to Winchester recently, have been spending a week on the former's farm near Boyce, Clarke county.
Mrs. Logan Fay, of New York, who recently returned from a long stay in Europe, is now at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Logan R. Fay, on Hackwood farm, near Winchester, for the winter.
Miss Annie Strubling has returned to her home in Berryville, after visiting Mrs. John B. Tifford, in Winchester.
Dr. John Evelyn Pace, of the United States Navy, has arrived from San Francisco on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pace, at their home in Berryville.

Misses Minnie and Josephine Conrad, who have been spending the summer and fall at their country home, Montana Hall, near White Post, have taken apartments in the New Willard Hotel, in Washington, for the winter season.
Walter R. Abell has returned to Baltimore, after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Weems, in Winchester.
Mrs. Martin Jarrett has returned to her home in Winchester, after spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Arch, at Strasburg.
Carroll Marshall, of Richmond, has been with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Marshall, in Winchester, for the past week, having come on account of the death of his brother, Roy Temple Marshall, in Covington, Ky.
Mrs. W. H. Woods and her son, Joseph Woods, who have been visiting Thomas Neill Lupton, in Winchester, have returned to their home, in Baltimore.
Miss Julia Butler, of Winchester, has returned from a visit to friends in Harper's Ferry.
Miss Elizabeth Hughes, of Baltimore, has been visiting at the home of Miss Bryan Stuart, in Winchester.
Mrs. C. E. Berry has returned to Washington, after visiting her father, Professor J. A. Ide, at his home in Winchester.
Miss Julia Walter, who has been visiting at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. Marion Orndoff, in Winchester, has returned to Baltimore, to spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. Annie Walter.

Mrs. C. W. Chandler and Miss Maggie Spangler, of Strasburg, were recent guests at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Luke R. Markwood, in Winchester.
Mrs. Robert McC. Glass, of Winchester, has been visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Loring A. Cover, at their home in Baltimore.
Mrs. Lewis E. Cooper, of Winchester, has been spending the past week in Washington, as the guest of Mrs. Celia House.
Captain James K. McCann left Winchester this week for Oklahoma City, where he will visit his son, William L. McCann, who is practicing law in the place.
Miss Margaret Bushnell, of Winchester, has been visiting Miss Mabel Wilen at her home in Martinsburg, W. Va.
Miss Annie Doyell, who has been visiting friends in Washington, has returned to her home at Front Royal.

West Point Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
West Point, Va., December 10.—Miss Lottie Stewart, of New Kent, will be married the 15th of this month at Liberty Baptist Church, by Rev. R. A. Folkes, to Vernon Taylor, also of New Kent. The bride is the daughter of Clifton Stewart.
Harry Glendhart and Miss Inez Sue Taylor, of West Point, will be married the 15th of this month, and will reside in West Point.
Miss Emily Puller has returned from a visit to friends in Richmond, where she is very popular in a large circle.
Mrs. B. W. Heffernon, who has been on a visit to her many friends in West Point, has returned to Richmond.
Fred Roberts, who married Miss Alice Wilkinson, of West Point, and who has an official position with the Old Dominion Steamship Company, stationed at Norfolk, had a very dangerous fall and broke two of his ribs and sustained other injuries. The latest news from him tells that he is much better than at first expected, and he would be out soon. His mother, Mrs. Clay Roberts, of West Point, is going down to see him, now that the weather has lifted.
Huntsmen in this section are having fine sport.
The oyster dealers are also enjoying life, as the weather means large sales of oysters of the finest kind. Sometimes the orders come so thick and fast that it is impossible to fill them at the right time.
In spite of the weather the streets are alive with Christmas shoppers, most of them from the country around.

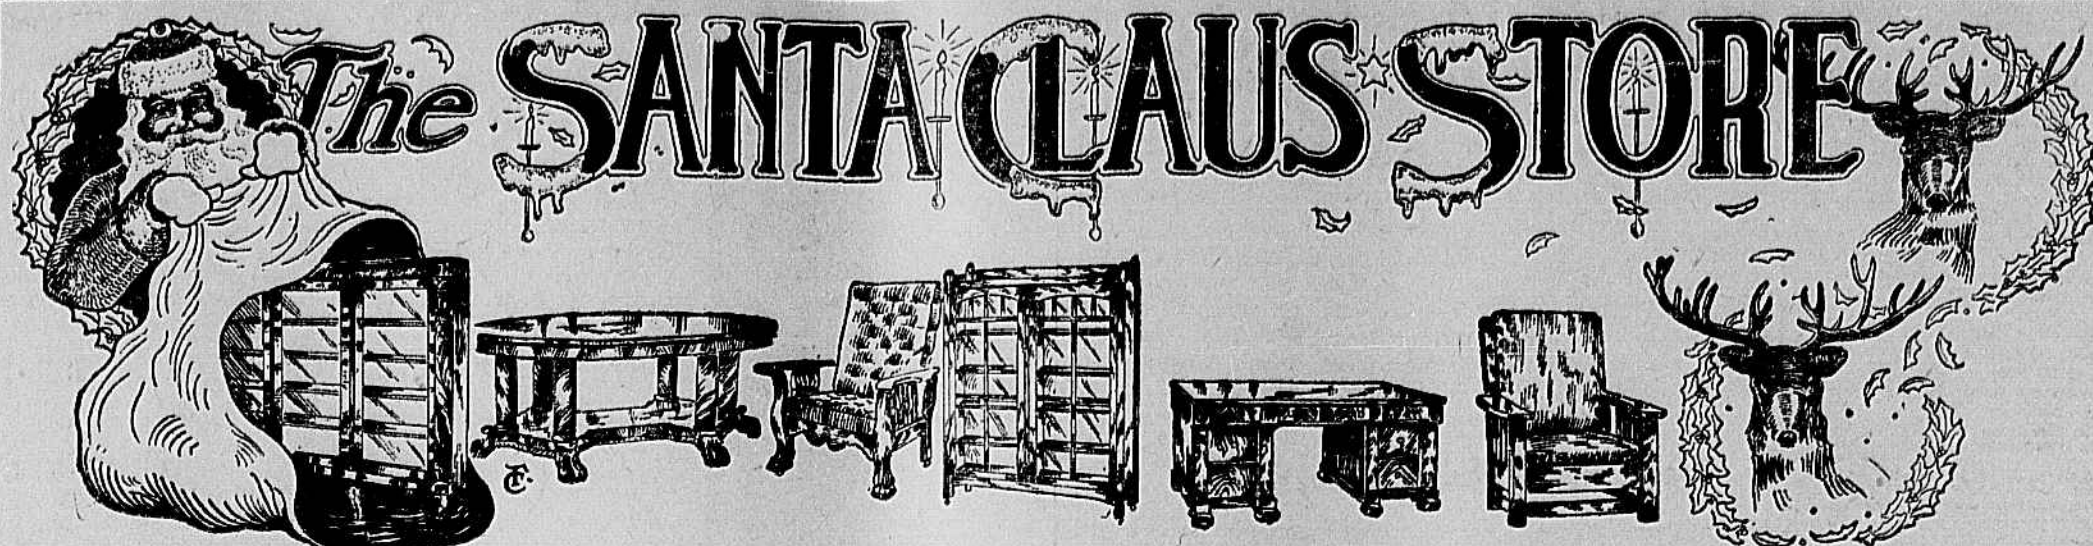

Letters from Mrs. Emma Roy Spencer, from this town, who was to spend the winter in Texas, at San Antonio, with her sons, Burke and Herbert, say she has not reached her destination yet, and will not before the 15th. Leaving here the 1st of October, she visited her son, Plourney, in St. Louis, and then visited Judge Burke's family in St. Joseph, Mo., then is to visit friends in Fort Worth, Tex. She will turn her face homeward about the middle of April.

Louisiana Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Louisiana, Va., December 10.—John Q. Rhodes, who is attending Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, is visiting his parents here.
Mrs. L. A. Cutler has returned after spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Goodloe, at Verden.
Rev. Morris Gordon, of Lynchburg, will begin his pastorate at the Christian Church here, Sunday, December 11.
Miss Ellen Kent has returned from a visit to her brother, Professor O. Kent, and sister, Mrs. Goss, at the University of Virginia.
Miss Anna Goodwin is visiting relatives in Richmond.
Hon. R. L. Gordon has returned from a trip to Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania Courthouse.
The Methodist Sunday school will have an entertainment and Christmas tree in its church here, December 27.
Geoff Crank has returned from a visit to Richmond and Ashland.
Mrs. Frank Cunningham, now of Richmond, spent Monday with friends here.

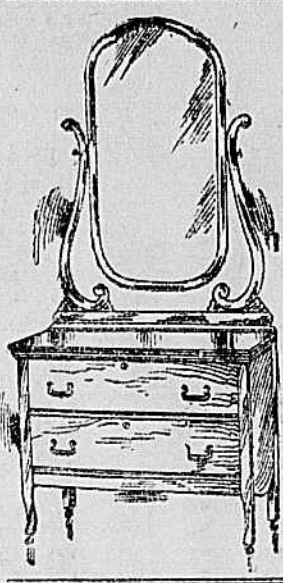

Wadesboro Social News

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Wadesboro, N. C., December 10.—

Useful Christmas Presents AT PETTIT'S BIG STORE

Furniture is the gift selected by thoughtful people. It assures many years of pleasing remembrance and practical service, especially when such Furniture has the beauty and durability of the Pettit kind. This store is HEADQUARTERS for Holiday Furniture—the variety and price range is not equaled ANYWHERE. It offers an exhibit of "embarrassment of riches" in the choice of IDEAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS, even articles of trivial cost possessing distinct decorative VALUE as well as UTILITY. In other words, "Pettit Quality" is an assurance of all you desire—a guarantee of permanency, attractiveness and years of satisfying service. Open an account. Shop early. Avoid the Christmas rush.

$13.75

Buys this $18. Princess Dresser, in solid oak or birch-mahogany finishes. Has full swell front, genuine French shaped front legs, extra large mirror, French bevel plate, supported by shapely designed mirror frame. Strictly high grade throughout.

Here's the most elegant and massive Morris Chair ever offered at anything like our price.

$10.50

It's made of solid quarter-sawn oak, and can be had in reversible velvet or with imitation leather cushion. It would be cheap at $15.00. There's a lot of solid comfort in a Morris Chair—so come in and get one. It's such a pretty Christmas gift!

We have others up to $35.00, and the assortment is so large that you will have no trouble whatever to find just what you expected to get.

Carpets and Rugs

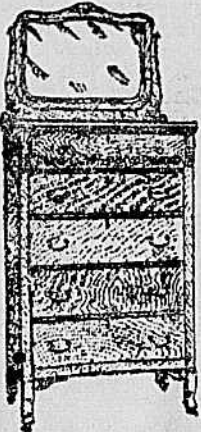

A collection which we have gathered with a view to making the gift problem easier for you. We have bought the best in the land. The scope of choice the great assortment affords covers every desire and meets every degree of expenditure. We can only give a hint of many unusual offerings that await your inspection. So come in and see what we have to show.

$1.39 No! it isn't a mistake—one-thirty-nine, we say and we mean it—for this Four-Piece Carving Set, of excellent quality steel, bone handles, neatly trimmed with nickel-silver. It's an unheard-of bargain, an extra special, which we purchased for the benefit of our customers. We searched the country, but find no finer set, no better set, no nicer set, no greater boom-crang all around than this Carving Set. And if you want one—come quick—because they will go like hot cakes. No mail orders filled, and positively none sold to dealers.

$11.75

Buys this $16.00 Chiffonier, built to match the Dresser. A big value at the price—generously good throughout. It goes without saying that your wife would prefer it to anything else as a Christmas gift.

Doll Go-Carts and Perambulators

Make the little one happy. Get one now! We have them here in great variety and for as little as $1.00 you can get a Doll Go-Cart that will look bigger than a twenty-dollar bill in your baby's sight. Up to $8.00.

Child's Desk and Chair

Another exceptional bargain—a big surprise for you—and bigger still for the boy or girl that will find the set on Christmas morn'g.

$1.98 for the entire set. OUR business how we can sell it to you at that figure—YOUR business to get one right away! Not many of them here, you know, and their stay in the store will be short.

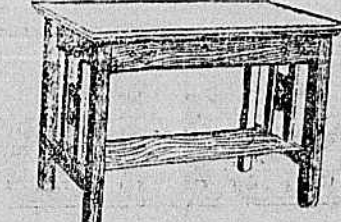

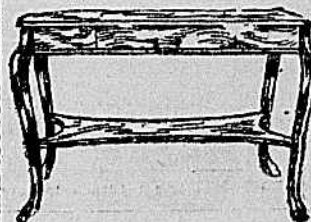

In golden oak and early English.

$10.50 for a Rocker of Best Quality Chase Leather

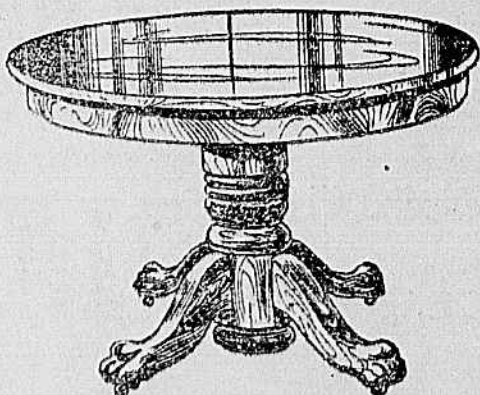

A magnificent piece of furniture, combining symmetry and beauty with the greatest comfort. We have them in large variety to select from up to $25.00.

Others, genuine leather, at from $30.00 to $75.00, with Chairs to match, if you wish them.

A Rocker is a welcome gift—no home complete without one. Substantial? Lasts a lifetime.

$8.75 for a Library Table, in solid quarter-sawn oak or early English mission style. Strikingly attractive, graceful in outline, selected with a view to combining solidity with handsome appearance.

How About a Dining-Room Table

We have wonderful values in Dining-Room Tables—all woods, all finishes—to match your buffet. We have a collection in which you will find the most astonishing bargains ever offered. Better in material, more dependable in workmanship and finish than Dining-Room Tables offered elsewhere at from $9.00 to $85.00.

Our Price, $4.95 to $65.00.

A Rocker Makes an Ideal Gift

Which will please immensely. We have an exceptionally large collection, which we were fortunate enough to secure in time for our Christmas trade, ranging in price from $1.98 to $25.00. And for the modest sum of $1.98 you can here buy a comfortable, durable Rocker, with large veneered seat, bent-wood arms and embossed top panel, equal to any $3.00 Rocker made.

New Method Gas Range

Stands on its reputation of "The Best Range in the World," and will hold its place for a long time to come. Positively saves 25 per cent. in gas consumption above any other Gas Range made, by reason of improvements protected by U. S. patents. Come in—see it work! Interesting to look at. You will want it!

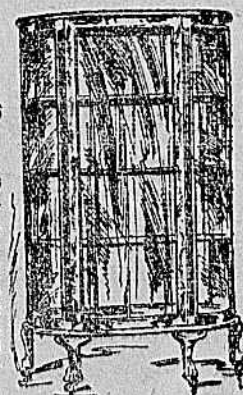

Boone Kitchen Cabinet

We pride ourselves on the quality of these Cabinets. Get one on our easy-way-to-pay plan, a most agreeable way of owning the best Kitchen Cabinet the world ever produced. One of the finest things a housewife could wish to have—$15.00 to $35.00.

A China Closet

The Housewife's Pride

$27.95 Buys this Quarter-Sawn Oak China Closet, an elegant piece of furniture, built to sell at $40.00, and well worth it, anywhere, any time! It has bent glass ends and door, brightly and highly polished—a genuine gem!

If you have managed to get along without a China Closet till now, better seize the opportunity to secure one at a figure which means a rock-bottom price in the real sense of the word. Would she want a nicer thing—a more elegant present?

Pettit and Company

FOUSNEE and BROAD STS

The women of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful bazaar at the home of Mrs. T. W. Austin Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. George Stanback was hostess of the Tuesday Afternoon Club December 6. Progressive forty-two was anticlassically played, and a dainty two-course luncheon served. Besides the club members, the invited guests were Mesdames Tom Cox, John Leak, Daisy Parsons, J. A. Hardison, W. T. Moss and Miss Jennie B. Brent. Mrs. W. C. Via and little daughter.

Laura Virginia, left last week to visit friends in Augusta, Ga. Haywood Gaddy, of Charlotte, is spending a while with his father, S. H. Gaddy, of Ansonville. Rev. T. W. Chambliss attended the Baptist State Convention at Hendersonville. T. J. Covington, Jr., of Wilson, is spending a few days at home. Mrs. Nellie Wells and Miss Olo Huntley, of Chatham, visited Mrs. L. J.

Huntley last week. Mrs. W. L. Parsons, of Rockingham, is visiting Mrs. W. T. Moss. John Lowe is visiting friends in Chilo, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Steele and Miss Marie Steele, of Washington, visited

Miss Johnnie Dunlap a few days last week. W. G. Martin is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Martin, of the Brown Creek section. W. C. Via is visiting his mother at Waldorf, Va.